Council Adopts $392,196 Budget With No Tax Increase

ROCKET-AROUSSED CONGRESS OPENS TODAY

Concern Over Soviet Strides Into Space and Missile Age Dominate Capitol Spotlight

Washington (AP)—Congress convened today for a session certain to be dominated by national concern over Russian strides into the space and rocket age.

Among many of the returning members there was an apparent sense of urgency such as prevailed in the early days of World War II. The men and women who must grapple with the Sputnik-spawned problems of the day are the same ones who sat in the first session of the 85th Congress. The leadership is the same.

But the mood was so altered as to make this an entirely different Congress from the one which shut up shop last August. At that time many members were crowing that cuts had been made in the Eisenhower administration's spending plans and the way thus opened for a tax cut in this 1958 election year.

Dulles Decides To Stay on as Sec. of State

Washington (AP)—John Foster Dulles has decided to stay on as secretary of state and is steeling himself to resist what he anticipates will be a mounting Democratic demand he retire.

President Eisenhower is understood to have assured him of full backing if he will continue.

The 69-year-old secretary is reported to have considered his future carefully within the past few weeks.

Friends said he realized that if he wanted to quit, his 70th birthday Feb. 25 and the approach of an expected hectic congressional session would have given him ample reason.

Now that he has made his decision, informants said, he has no intention of quitting under domestic political fire.

The big question mark is his health. He is understood to be confident, however, he will be vigorous enough for the job.

Dulles had some reason to question his fitness when he returned from the Atlantic Pact summit meeting in Paris two weeks ago. (Turn to Page Eight)

C. of C. To Honor Area Farm Students

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 p. m. in the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce offices presentation of awards will be made to three young area farm students who have won the Keystone Farmer Degree of the Future Farmers of America.

A release from the Chamber of Commerce office says this annual ceremony will honor Paul Johnson, Bear Lake, Delbert L. Wagner and John L. Wagner, both of Tionesta Rd 1 who have received the highest award possible on the state level for outstanding achievement in farm and rural life.

The Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee headed by Carl Peterson will present each of three youths a check for $20.00 in recognition of their achievement.

Since 1947 the local Chamber has given awards to 26 young farmers and next week at the farm show in Harrisburg the organization will receive a Citation from the Pennsylvania Association of Future Farmers.

Sheriff and Deputy Appointed County Detectives by New D. A.

New District Attorney Samuel F. Bonavita today announced the appointment of Sheriff Larry E. Linder and chief deputy Don Allen to the positions of County Detective. Both Chief County Detective Linder and County Detective Allen will receive salaries of $1,500 annually.

The announcement by the District Attorney settled the matter of Sheriff's Department expenses after January 6, 1958. Still not settled is the matter of the Sheriff's expenses since June of 1957 when the Commissioners stopped payment and took the expense matter out of the hands of then District Attorney Myer E. Kornreich.

The $1,500 annual salary to each of the two men County Detectives through provisions of the County Code of 1955. The County Code provides that County Detectives shall be subject to the orders of the District Attorney and shall make investigations and endeavor to obtain evidence required by the District Attorney in criminal cases.

Now, tax cut talk is hushed. Instead, some members are asking whether a sagging economy can be bolstered and defense needs met without resort to red ink financing.

President Eisenhower gave word to his Republican legislative leaders that he will present a balanced budget of about 74 billion dollars. This would be an increase of about two billion from his budget for the current fiscal year. The GOP legislators met with the President at the White House before the formalities of opening Congress.

Eisenhower's budget is to be presented to the Congress next Monday. This Thursday he will deliver in person his annual State of the Union message.

The White House has indicated this will deal almost exclusively with national defense and foreign policy issues in the light of Soviet space challenges.

The somber tone of the congressional mood was sounded by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas in an address to a meeting of all senators of his party shortly before the opening of the new session.

Along with the efforts to do something about the state of U. S. rocketry, the session promises to develop much attempted blame-fixing for this country's having fallen behind Russia.

This is in the nature of politics, particularly in a year when all seats in the House and one-third of those in the Senate will be up for contests.

Already, there is blasting at rivalry among the armed forces. This has brought moves to replace the present Joint Chiefs of Staff with one chief of staff.

Four of Crew Killed In Crash of Patrol Plane

Norfolk, Va. (AP)—A Navy patrol plane, struggling for a landing with one of its two engines dead, crashed into a thickly settled seashore resort area yesterday. Four of the 12 crewmen were killed.

The Mercator aircraft careened into a group of cottages, demolishing three and damaging three others. The plane and one of the houses burned.

Injured in the crash were three occupants of houses struck by the plane as it skidded into the ocean-front settlement at nearby Ocean View.

Cdr. Clyde Curley, 41, pilot of the plane, told Navy officials his aircraft had entered its pattern for a landing at the Norfolk Naval Air Station when its port propeller engine suddenly lost power.

In a 60-mile radius of Warren, trips further afield will presumably be paid for by the county. The sheriff and his chief deputy formerly got $1 an hour for their investigative work until the Commissioners balked and said the men weren't legal.

District Attorney Bonavita appointed the two men County Detectives through provisions of the County Code of 1955. The County Code provides that County Detectives shall be subject to the orders of the District Attorney and shall make investigations and endeavor to obtain evidence required by the District Attorney in criminal cases.

District Attorney Bonavita added that "appointment of the Sheriff and his chief deputy will be subject to the orders of the District Attorney and shall make investigations and endeavor to obtain evidence required by the District Attorney in criminal cases."

A large number of spectators gathered along Conewango avenue and on Beatty Field last evening as the Warren-Forest Council of Girl Scouts held its 19th Annual Twelfth Night Ceremonies. Mrs. Ralph Van Orsdel, president of the local Girl Scout Council, was on hand to crown King Carol Kerven and Queen Medora Meacham.

Members of the Royal Court were Sharon Rich, Jester; Molly Orsdel and Susie Whorner, Train Bearers; Linda Schumann and Penny Abel, Crown Bearers; Patty Kifer and Karen Grimes, Herald; and the following court members: Susan Schumann, Becky Riggs, Olivia Berry, Mary Jane Hackett, Susan Smith, Judy Templeton, Frances Hennessy, Linda Weirich, Isabel Hedrick, Karen Rulander, Karen Clark, and Mary Lynn Shelgreen.

About 200 Brownies and Intermediate Scouts gathered at Jefferson School Auditorium at 6 p. m. for the preliminary ceremony of choosing the king, queen, and court members by means of tokens baked into cupcakes. Following the selection, with the royal party garbed in colorful robes, the entire gathering processed to Beatty Field as Mrs. Robert Schumann led the group in the singing of Christmas carols.

Cold Wave Numbs Midwest and Heads Into Eastern Area

By The Associated Press

A cold wave numbed parts of the nation's midsection today and spread eastward toward the Atlantic.

Temperatures slid below zero in the eastern Dakotas and Minnesota and dipped into the teens as far south as northern Missouri and central Illinois.

Southerly winds ahead of a low-pressure area centered over the Great Lakes boosted temperatures into the 30s in the Eastern states as far north as New England.

Rain pelted most of the eastern Gulf and south Atlantic region. Light snow was general throughout the Great Lakes region with flurries extending southward to West Virginia and northern Kentucky.

Cold air with snow moved eastward across the state today, bringing an assortment of wintry weather.

There was light snow in west and central Pennsylvania with rain in the east expected to change to snow or sleet.

Snow and snow flurries with colder temperatures are expected to continue over most of the state tonight, with lows in the teens in west and north central portions, and the 20s in the south central and eastern portions.

Rebuilding Plans Are Announced by West Penn Oil Co.

West Penn Oil Company officials announced today that they will not rebuild their Venturatown blending plant which was destroyed by fire October 2, 1957.

H. M. Miller, West Penn president, stated that facilities lost in the fire would be replaced on the company's 5-acre site along the three-lane highway at North Warren.

Plans for the replacement are now in progress and a building program will be started in the spring to add to the existing buildings, according to the company announcement.

The triangular site at Venturatown comprising approximately one-half acre of land will eventually be available for sale.

President Miller today praised the work of the firemen who extinguished the blaze. Their efforts, he said, enabled the company to salvage highly inflammable petroleum products which were contained in 15 of the 17 tanks outside the main storage building.

This substantially cut the preliminary damage estimates of $150,000, to $175,000, according to Mr. Miller.

Baby Dies After Dousing In Toilet By His Sister

Kearny, N. J. (AP)—A 6-week-old baby boy died yesterday shortly after his mother pulled him from a toilet where his 4-year-old sister had placed him for a "bath."

Mrs. Marlene Case managed to revive her son Gerald with artificial respiration and had him rushed to West Hudson Hospital. The infant died there some two hours later.

Mrs. Case told police she awoke from an afternoon nap to find the child in the bathroom with his sister Diane.

Kremlin Silent About Latest Rider Rocket

Moscow (AP)—The Kremlin kept silent today on unofficial reports that Russia has fired a man-carrying rocket about 186 miles high and got the passenger back to earth.

The official blackout aroused speculation that the rocket experiment took place a day or so after Jan. 1 and the passenger parachuted back to earth. The informants did not say whether the first space traveler went all the way up with the rocket, or just how he escaped from it.

There were no hints as to the mystery traveler's identity. Many Russians have volunteered for pioneering flights into space.

If verified, the experiment could have as much or more scientific import than the launching of the dog-carrying Soviet satellite last fall. It would mark another Soviet triumph over the United States in the space race.

The reported altitude of 186 miles, while not high enough to escape gravity pull and put a rocket into orbit about the earth, is nearly eight times higher than any human has ever gone. The world altitude record of 126,000 feet, less than 24 miles, was set in September 1956 by U. S. Air Force Maj. Ivan Kincheloe in the X2 experimental plane.

Washington (AP)—Unconfirmed reports that Russia has fired a manned rocket 186 miles into space brought varied U. S. comment—but no expressions of outright disbelief.

Some scientists said the United States may not be too far from such a test.

Dispatches from Moscow yesterday quoted hitherto reliable sources in Russia as saying a man-carrying rocket was fired to that unprecedented height and the passenger was parachuted back to earth. It was not specified whether the man went all the way up or quit the rocket at some lower level, or whether he got back alive. There has been no official Russian comment.

Stassen Decides It Is Too Early To Make Decision

AP Special Washington Service

Washington (AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today he had received word from some Pennsylvania Republican leaders who would welcome his candidacy for governor but who believe it is too early to take a stand.

Stassen's statement, in an interview, contrasted with reports issued from Republican party leaders in Pennsylvania that no support at all has developed for the presidential disarmament adviser.

Stassen, a former governor of Minnesota, sent letters recently to Pennsylvania's 67 GOP county chairmen informing them that he is "seriously considering" seeking nomination as Republican gubernatorial candidate in his adopted state.

Stassen declined to name any of the individuals taking a definite stand either against him or "welcoming" him.

His final decision on whether to seek the nomination must come before the March 17 deadline for filing nomination petitions for Pennsylvania's May 20 primary. Filing opens on Feb. 25.

School Bus With 42 Tots Crashes Down Steep Gully

Towanda, Pa. (AP)—A school bus carrying 42 children crashed 30 feet down a gully at the edge of the Susquehanna River today when a bridge it was crossing collapsed.

No one was reported killed in the mishap which occurred at Wysox, Bradford County. First news from the scene about four miles east of Towanda was that several of the children were shaken but only one girl pupil sustained face cuts.

The bus was driven by Willard Ackley of Towanda and was carrying the children to the Wysox Elementary School.

The bridge was under repair and a truck loaded with lumber had stopped on one end of the span, river bank.

Across the Board Wage Hikes Granted Firemen, Policemen, Park and Street Departments

Warren Borough Council last night approved a 1958 budget of $392,196.

The amount, $8,018 more than last year, means no increase in the current 26 mill tax levy.

During the hour and one-half session Council also voted down the proposed zoning amendment in Residential District No. 3, granted across the board wage increases for most borough employees and took an option on Halle's Crescent Street garage to centralize equipment storage.

In an optimistic mood with an on-paper capital surplus of $8,996-51 showing at the end of fiscal 1957, Council created a "Capital Reserve Fund", then authorized the above amount, and other year-end surpluses, to be transferred into it for use when "contingencies" arise.

As a credit to the Finance Committee, there was very little discussion of any item in the proposed budget and it passed unanimously. Budget in 1957 amounted to $384,178. Budget for 1958 is $392,196. It was pointed out that a copy of the budget would be available in the Borough Manager's office in Municipal Building for public appraisal until the next meeting when the tax levy of 26 mills is to be officially set.

Directly accountable for the $8,018 rise in the budget were salary increases in all departments. Only other item granted more money in the 1958 budget was the matter of insurance which jumped from $10,600 in 1957 to $11,300 in 1958. Across the board wage increases for most of the firemen, policemen, park and street department employees will amount to approximately $10 a month, or roughly $2,500 a week.

Largest single budget boost for 1958 came in the public works department. Its budget figure jumped from $79,140 to $82,698 for the coming year. Parks Department budget jumped from $25,951 to $28,931. Police Department budgetary allotment rose from $82,800 in 1957 to $85,830 in 1958. Fire Department budget is up from $89,440 to $91,810, (which is, incidentally, the largest single item in the budget).

Administrative costs are up from $18,860 to $20,680. Borough Manager's base salary was boosted from $5,700 in 1957 to $6,400 in 1958. Borough Secretary's salary was boosted from $600 to $800. Borough Treasurer R. W. Steber will receive $100 in 1958 and is under $25,000 bond Borough solicitor S. Knox Harper will be paid $3,000 for most of his duties (except court, mainly) during 1958 and is under $5,000 bond. Robert DeBell of Hill and Hill Borough Engineer will be paid $2,500 in 1958 for his advisory services. He is under a $5,000 bond. Salaries of (Turn to Page Eight)

New Member and Incumbents Are Sworn in by the Burgess

Warren Borough Council president Leon Laskaris was unanimously returned to office for his third two-year term Monday evening during Council's biennial reorganization session.

Councilman Laskaris thanked his fellow Council members for the honor they had bestowed upon him by their unanimous vote (which was included with his nomination) and said he would endeavor to improve his job in the months to come. He was the only nominee.

Mr. Laskaris is the second oldest Council member in years of continuous service, having served on Council from the Fifth Ward since September 7, 1948. Only Councilman Nick Meremck of the Ninth Ward has served longer, having been a member since July 7, 1948.

Richard Meacham was the one new Councilman sworn in last evening by Burgess William E. Rice. He succeeded R. E. Johnson who decided not to run again in the Eighth Ward.

Other incumbents, successful in their bid for reelection in November and sworn in last night by the Burgess were: John W. Newmiller, First Ward; Warren E. Miller, Second Ward; Jesse G. Smith, Third Ward; John A. Carbon, Fourth Ward; Karl G. Timm, Fifth Ward; Paul W. Yagge, Sixth Ward; Maurice R. Emery, Eighth Ward; Nick Meremck, Ninth Ward.

The Council met first to conclude old business, adjourned sine die, then Burgess Rice presided while the new Councilmen were sworn in and until President Laskaris was returned to his chair.

Indiana Judge Rejects Plea in Murder Trial

Indiana, Pa. (AP)—Attorneys for Harry Gates of McIntyre, sentenced to life imprisonment for murder, say they will appeal his case to the State Supreme Court.

Judge Edwin M. Clark of Indiana County Common Pleas Court rejected Gates' appeal for a new trial and handed down a life sentence yesterday.

A jury convicted Gates of first degree murder for the shooting of Louis Turk of McIntyre last June 14.

JOHNSON SAYS THE PERIL OF HOUR OBVIOUS

Washington (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said today the returning Congress faces decisions that may determine who gains "total control over the earth for . . . tyranny or the service of freedom."

"The peril of the hour is obvious," he said.

Johnson, Senate Democratic leader and chairman of the Preparedness subcommittee which has been probing into the status of the nation's missile and rockets programs, said Russia's leaders have made space control "a first aim of national policy."

In remarks prepared for a caucus of Democratic senators meeting just ahead of the formal opening of the new congressional session, Johnson said U. S. leaders have followed a different course.

"Some dismiss the Sputniks as playthings," he continued, adding that Congress must decide "which nation is correct."

"The urgent race we are now in—or which we must enter—is not to perfect long range ballistics missiles," Johnson said.

Johnson made available to newsmen the text of his talk to the closed meeting of Democratic senators. A similar briefing for Republican senators on the Preparedness subcommittee's hearings was planned by Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.).

Johnson criticized decisions of the Eisenhower administration which he said slowed down or inhibited progress. (Turn to Page Eight)

Sky Watchers Are Honored at Unusual Recognition Service

Signalling the end of a service which won national and state recognition for Warren, the Ground Observer Corps honored 62 sky watchers at a ceremony at the courthouse last night.

At midnight on New Year's Eve the last 24-hour Sky Watch finished five and a half years of duty at the Glade Township Fire Department tower. New Canadian defenses and better national radar warnings are replacing the faithful observers.

"Henceforth, the Sky Watch Observation will be on a ready-reserve status," disclosed William C. Fuellhart, director of Warren County Civil Defense. "Of course, in the case of a national alert all six posts in the county will be manned. And we will hold monthly test alerts."

Among the 60 sky watchers who were honored last night are teenagers, several father-son combinations and a few Golden Agers, as well as men and women in all walks of life. Since 1952 their devotion to duty captured two awards from Washington and Harrisburg for the Warren post. Warren became known throughout the East for its expert reporting of aircraft.

Pioneers in the service here are George W. Eberhardt, the post supervisor, Donald Kinander and Albert Seymour, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Wollaston scanned the skies for 1000 hours, which were (Turn to Page Eight)

Important Ruling on Deduction On Expenses for Mentally Ill

Washington (AP)—A ruling that special training and care for the mentally and physically handicapped are deductible as a medical expense on income tax returns today was made formal by the Internal Revenue Service.

The IRS bulletin said the deductible costs may include board and lodging in an institution other than a hospital if the person is there because medical care or special schooling is available.

Medical care includes the entire cost of institutional care for a person who is mentally ill and unsafe when left alone, the bulletin said.

This has been the government's position since September 1956 when Rep. Gary D-Va. obtained and announced the ruling. But until now it had not been incorporated officially in the tax regulations.

The regulation permits deduction for costs of instruction in Braille and in lip-reading for the blind or deaf.

IRS emphasized that if the availability of medical care is not a principal reason for a person's presence in an institution, the tax deduction covers only the portion of the cost of institutional care which is attributable to medical care.

For example, if a person was in a home for the aged for personal or family reasons and not because he needed medical or nursing attention, meals and lodging would not be deductible for tax purposes.

Interesting Reports Made To School at January Meeting

Warren Borough School Board last night approved final payment of $23,219 into the sinking fund which will pay off the 1929 bond issue which borrowed money for building Beatty, Lacy, Home Street, Seneca and McClintock schools.

That final payment into the sinking fund will leave it with a balance of about $63,000, according to School Superintendent Dr. Carl E. Whipple. This will be enough, Board members were told, to pay off in 1959 the $697,085 which includes interest payments of 4 1/2 percent on the $355,000 bond issue.

It also contains funds sufficient to pay off the $359,640 obligation in 1958 for another $195,000 bond issue at 4 1/2 percent which helped to build the five schools mentioned above.

Dr. Whipple said following last night's meeting that the appraisers' report on land evaluations of property at the Swick site needed for the high school would be presented at the Joint Committee meeting next Monday. If the Committee accepts the appraisal, School Board Solicitor R. Pierson Eaton will be instructed to proceed with definite offers to the land owners.

Board members agreed to hold the milk price at 4 cents a half-pint for elementary school pupils, despite the recent price rise of one-fourth of a cent. Elementary milk expenditures for the month of December showed $803 in expenditures and $830 in receipts, the discrepancy due to a two-week payment in advance by the students.

President Melvin G. Keller appointed the same committees at the reorganization session. Only exception was that W. Scott Caldwell was asked to serve as head of the schools committee until as such time that Dr. A. J. O'Connor could resume his chairmanship.

Receipts for the month showed $70 from the Commissioners for use of the schools as polling places, $2,984 as the Boro's share of the 1957 recreation program, and $554 from the state as its milk program reimbursement.

Board voted to hold its meeting February 3rd in Jefferson Street School so interested PTA members could attend. Board also voted to split costs of a set of Junior Britannica with the Home Street Parents Club.

Mrs. Janet Swick was granted time to do extra work on the payroll made necessary by social security. Approval was given Dental Hygienist Pauline Newman to attend a training conference March 27-29 at State College. Home instruction was approved for Jeffrey Smith, McClintock third grader who has a broken leg.

It was reported the insurance compensation rate would be 193 per thousand dollars of insurance.

Georgia was named in honor of King George II of England. It became a state in 1788.

"Self-Help" Plan Is Offered Again By Revenue Office

Continuing for the third year its program of applying "self-help principles" to assistance, the Pittsburgh district office of the Internal Revenue Service will make the fullest possible use of all informational media to keep Federal income taxpayers posted on requirements which apply to most of them. District Director John H. Biegler said today.

"The cooperation of most of the newspapers of our district has again been promised and we know from past experience that this is a key factor in providing helpful information in the preparation of 1957 returns," Mr. Biegler said.

"Many newspapers have advised us that they will offer for their readers a series of articles detailing important steps in the preparation of both Forms 1040 and 1040A.

"Similar cooperation has been promised by television and radio stations of the area and we will have several types of broadcast programs to highlight pertinent tax matters. Specific plans on these will be announced as they are developed.

"We'd like to emphasize the availability of telephone assistance throughout the filing period, which ends again this year on April 15."

History of Railroad Subject of Rotary Talk

Jim Wright of Irvine, a former official of the Union Switch and Signal Company of Swissvale, traced the history of railroading during the last 50 years in a talk to the Warren Rotary Club on Monday at the Penn Laurel Dining Room. Telling how improved signals have made railroads faster, more efficient, and more economical, Mr. Wright described the transition from hand operated signals at the turn of the century to electronic controls today. His topic was "Tomorrow's Railroading today through Automation."

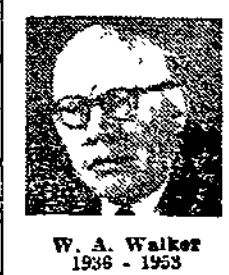

He described how a train had been run over its route without either engineer or fireman, through the use of electronics.

Reporting on the progress of the current campaign for funds for the permanent endowment of the Probation Association, Judge Flick stated that the number of juveniles appearing before the court has

CITY FATHERS HOLD LINE

Borough Council held the line on taxes and zoning last night. Councilmen also cut some more red tape from their operational procedure and created a "Capital Reserve Fund" for cash surpluses (if any exist at year-end).

On the budget matter for 1958, by some artful juggling the Finance Committee was able to grant salary increases for most of the Borough employees and still not raise the 26-mill tax levy.

Big contributing factor in this is the rise in assessed evaluation in Warren Borough from $15,751,000 in 1957 to an estimated $16,000,000 in 1958. Whereas it was estimated in 1957 that the real estate and occupational taxes would bring in $255,200, the Finance Committee estimates in 1958 that the same taxes will bring in $262,200 because of the increased evaluation.

For the record it should be noted that actual real estate and occupational tax revenue in 1957 was $262,076.67, just $121.33 less than is predicted this year. However, Maurice Emery, Finance Committee Chairman, points out that only 87.4 percent of the people can be expected to pay their taxes in any given year. And 1957 was an extremely good year, thus bringing in $6,876 more than anticipated. With a polka-dot recession already sweeping the country, the Finance Committee's estimate seems appropriate for 1958, despite the increased evaluation.

But should there still be a surplus as there was this year (amounting to $8,996.51) a fund has been created for it. It is the "Capital Reserve Fund" for surplus money in the bank at year-end. The Fund will be used for "contingencies."

A great amount of credit should go to the Finance Committee (and it was so stated in Council) for their fine presentation of a budget which was self-explanatory, well balanced (in advance) and only a few expendable corners clipped. Council passed it unanimously, without quibbling. Finance Committee members are Maurice R. Emery, chairman; James C. Torrance and James H. Frantz.

Some percentages of the special funds had to be rearranged, but the increased evaluation will absorb the difference.

In the matter of R-3 zoning, Council followed its conscience. No one in his right mind is willfully going to take a step which will reduce property values in a section where all the families are bringing up children and otherwise attempting to preserve the atmosphere of the neighborhood. Every property owner in Warren who does not stand to gain from the amendment will agree with every R-3 district homeowner.

In other action last night, Council cut some red tape from its proceedings. It voted to elect the Borough Manager, Secretary, Treasurer, Solicitor and Engineer for indefinite terms, then went ahead and did so. As Burgess Rice explains it, "Every one of the officers concerned may be dismissed by Council at any time, and they may quit at any time. This resolution just obviates the necessity for Council to vote on them every two years."

"J. A." RETIRED!

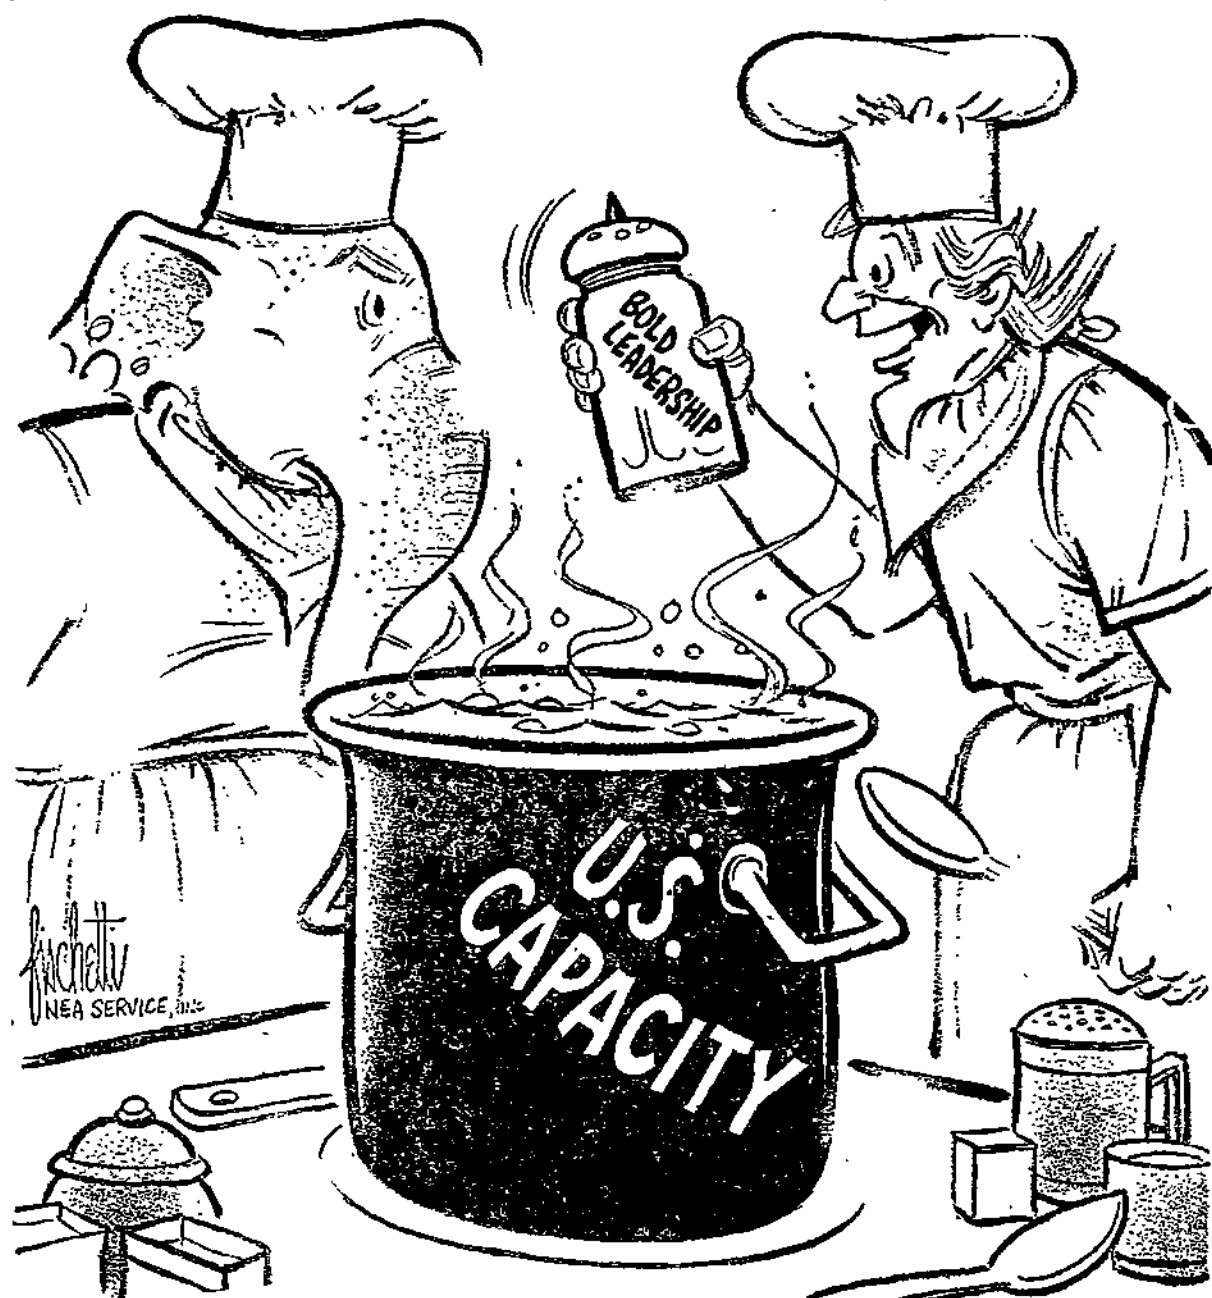

Last of the oldtime clothing merchants passed from the business scene this week with the retirement of J. A. Johnson due to declining health in his 81st year. Closed down for good is the long, narrow shop, where Mr. Johnson spent long hours of his life seated cross-legged on a desk tending his alterations. Principal delight in "J. A.'s" later life after his family and profession, was the Hot Stove Cadet League team sponsored by his store. Highlight for Mr. Johnson in 1957 was when his team won the championship and the trophy was presented to "J. A."

Here and There

A bulletin from the Office of General Counsel, Post Office Department, that should interest many readers in and around Warren, reads as follows: "Endless chain schemes for obtaining money and savings bonds are being conducted throughout the country in violation of the postal lottery and fraud laws. Those who participate in such activities may be subject to criminal prosecution. It makes no difference whether the lists of participants are circulated through the mails or pass from hand to hand; as long as the money, bonds or receipts are mailed the scheme is illegal." According to a release received over the weekend a 24-year-old former serviceman at the Pennsylvania State University is pushing the search for an answer to the problem brought by the piled woodpecker's destructive assaults on wooden utility poles. Supported by financial grants from power companies in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, John F. Sentz is seeking to learn whether the practice can be discouraged by the use of chemical repellents. Five such repellents have been singled out for special attention because alone among some 68 tested they were avoided by a captive woodpecker during a protracted period last spring and summer. "These tests," Sentz, instructor of wood technology pointed out, "would indicate that the best immediate answer to the problem might be a chemical repellent combined with a preservative and applied to wooden utility poles. We're now testing these chemicals in the field." The research is warmly supported by utility companies since untold damage is caused by these marauders and the companies stand to save thousands of dollars if research uncovers an effective repellent. A yearly grant has just been renewed. Mechanical protectors also are undergoing examination. It has been found, for example, that several metal type coverings effectively prevented the woodpecker from getting at the wood underneath. They represent a large outlay of money, of course, and possibly are no more effective. Meanwhile, Sentz will go in search of another woodpecker, for the captive bird which he has been using after getting it from a nest in a Pennsylvania woodland died a month ago of natural causes.

Under the heading "Flowers of Month" the Bradford Era prints the following interesting article in its editorial column: "Perhaps it's a coincidence that the flowers of the month for January are the snowdrop and the carnation. Whether it is or not, the designation of these two for this month has real significance. With the coming of the New Year came the snow, rich, white and flaky. It's a skier's delight and a shoveler's disappointment to have the white stuff come. But, all in all, provided there's an early spring, the snow does add beauty and a change of pace to the landscape. And just as carnations bring pink and red hues to the scene, so do snow and cold weather bring a tinge of pink or red to our cheeks. So, let's get out in the snow and enjoy it. Probably right now in New Zealand or Australia, the heat of summer is making a few people wish—occasionally, that is—for some of the snow and cold we are expecting.

How Warren's business people banded together seventy years ago to help the industrial and economic situation of the community is outlined in the following taken from "The Rambler" column of The Ledger seventy years ago this week: "I attended the meeting of the business men's association last Tuesday evening, and was deeply impressed with several things as the meeting progressed. I have noted the tenor of the reports in the daily papers and presume that I feel just about as the reporters of those papers do—nothing particular to say, or, in other words, it were better to say nothing at present. One thing is evident to my mind and that is, the 'few faithful' have not learned that the 'few faithful' must always shoulder the greater part of the burden. The report of Secretary Rankin shows several desirable opportunities for prompt action, but it requires money to act with. There are several men in the town who could afford to contribute liberally and no doubt will do so, but so long as one waits for another to make a start just so long one year after another will continue to pass along without anything being accomplished. The proposition made by Mr. Hertzler to raise a fund of $15,000 or $20,000 to be subject to assessment whenever the board of managers thought proper to invest, was an excellent proposition. If he had supplemented it with the proposition to receive subscriptions, say payable in three years, of three equal annual payments, it is my impression over $50,000 would be subscribed. Mr. Rankin's proposition to donate the land, providing ten men would erect the building for a harness factory employing 75 to 100 workmen, exhibited the proper spirit and was worthy of more serious consideration. It was evident that there are too many propositions for the pocketbooks of our people—not too many however if the right men would consider the question rightly. As it is, the association had better accomplish one thing at a time, and as the results are appreciated, it will induce the citizens to subscribe liberally for the second, third, fourth, fifth, etc. The same rule applies to the subscription plan of making annual payments. The Pennsylvania Gas company have a good deal at stake and could afford to subscribe liberally. They could afford to furnish gas for manufacturing at cost price because every factory secured means largely increased domestic consumption. I understand the company offer satisfac-

AEC Reorganization Shows Atom's Growing Importance

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—A reorganization of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission which is now under way reveals the dramatic progress which has been made in all areas of the practical use of the atom during the past year.

The AEC has now found it necessary to separate its regulatory functions from its program to promote the uses of Atomic energy. It is creating the new divisions in place of the one unit which has been doing both of these jobs.

An attorney with considerable experience in atomic law, Harold L. Price, will head the Division of Licensing and Regulation. He has been serving with the AEC in various legal capacities since 1947.

"Most of our work will be writing and enforcing safety regulations," he explains. "This includes regulations for private and public reactors and developing licensing procedures for the safe handling and use of radioisotopes, source material, and special nuclear material," he said.

IN 1957, 16 nuclear reactors were completed by U.S. firms, the Atomic Industrial Forum reveals. This includes seven power-type and nine research and test reactors. In addition, work was started on 35 power and 24 test and research reactors. Also, the Forum's annual report reveals—

"American industry signed contracts for the construction of seven uranium ore processing mills, 13 companies announced plans to enter the field of nuclear fuel element production and research, one company began construction of plants for the production of zirconium, and two companies completed construction of plants for the production of beryllium."

Mr. Price's staff will start with about 100 persons.

ANOTHER AEC veteran, Dr. Frank K. Pittman, will head the new Office of Industrial Development. He has been with the government's atomic program since 1944. He was in charge of plutonium production at Los Alamos, N.M., through June, 1948. Dr. Pittman believes that one of the biggest untapped uses for nuclear materials is in the industrial processing. He cites the possibility of preserving foods by radiation as a field which industry will be able to move into profitably soon.

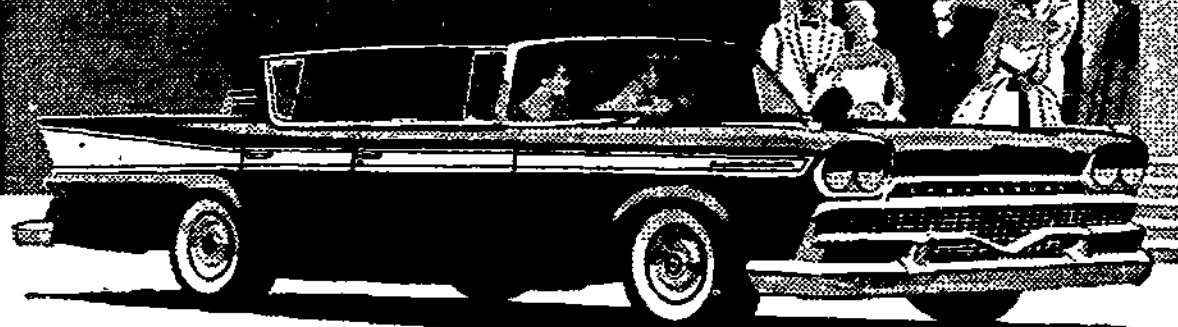

The U.S. Army Quartermaster Corps has already done extensive research in this field with the cooperation of more than 40 firms. It has been demonstrated that all kinds of foods can be kept for many months after they have been sterilized by radiation.

THE PETROLEUM and chemical industries have already started using production methods which require nuclear materials and Dr. Pittman plans to encourage more study by industry of this field. "We know that radiation production techniques will permit you to do things with materials which can't be done any other way," he says. New metals and new chemicals for hundreds of special uses can be made by nuclear processing methods, he claims.

Ten new firms were created last year to get into some part of the nuclear energy field. And many big firms added nuclear divisions to promote various phases of atomic work. Four firms applied to the AEC for permission to sell radioactive waste disposal services, for example.

A total of 1,400 AEC permits have been granted for access to nuclear information. More than 70 per cent are held by firms, while the rest have been given to schools and individuals.

Hundreds more access applications are pending, Dr. Pittman tory rates and am glad to make a note of the fact. In view of the apparent necessity for immediate action in one or two of the propositions, it appears to me another meeting of the citizens should be called at an early date. Warren cannot afford to let these chances slip by without making a determined effort, and some one besides the business men, who have enough work to do to keep afloat, must take the initiatory steps and do it with a vim and vengeance that will enthrall his neighbors. A few thousands of dollars expended in this manner would make a perpetual monument for any man far superior to the elegant and liberal donation of the Honorable Thomas Struthers."

MR. AND MRS. TOM EDWARD SMITH

A lovely ceremony at 2:30 p. m. December 28 in Clarendon Methodist church united in marriage Geraldine Dolores Bedow, daughter of the late Lt. and Mrs. Richard N. Bedow of 715 Conewango avenue, Warren, and Tom Edward Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Smith, 108 Main street, Clarendon. The Rev. Hubert F. Jicha, Jr., performed the double ring ceremony before an altar setting of palms, white pom poms and candles. Miss Treva McKinney and James Thompson, both of Youngsville, were organist and vocalist, respectively.

Given in marriage by her cousin, Leon Groves of Celoron, N. Y., the bride wore waltz length white chantilly lace over satin, the fitted basque bodice having a seed pearl and sequin-embroidered sabrina neckline and glove-like sleeves, the bouffant skirt accented with sequin embroidery. Her shoulder length veil was gathered to a petal cap and her white prayer book was covered with a white orchid and satin streamers.

As matron of honor for her cousin, Mrs. Edway Westfall of Tidoute wore ballerina length mint green net, with headpiece and colonial bouquet of Chie roses. Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters, Patricia Smith, wearing pink nylon chiffon and a headpiece to match her colonial bouquet of pink roses; and Jo Ann Smith, in yellow net, with matching rose headband and bouquet.

Chosen by her cousin as flower girl, Janet Groves of Celoron wore white nylon lace and a sweetheart hat and carried a basket of yellow mums and white pom poms. Randall Westfall of Tidoute, another cousin, served as ring bearer.

Completing the bridal party, Robert Bullock of Clarendon was best man; ushers were Dennis Steele, Clarendon, and Edway Westfall, Tidoute.

Wearing pink roses, the bride's mother chose a powder blue brocade with navy accents; Mrs. Smith, beige net and matching accessories.

The reception followed at Warren Grange Hall, where a blue and white color thought was used for a five-tier cake. Aides were Sue Spattifor, Sue Van Volkinburg, Mrs. Louise Hart and Mrs. Mable Corbin.

Out of town guests were from Ohio; Celoron, N. Y.; Erie, Tidoute, Youngsville and Oil City.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the bride selected a blue jersey dress and white accessories.

The bridegroom will return to Germany, where he is stationed with the U. S. Army. He is a 1955 graduate of Warren High School and his bride, who attended the same school, is employed at Ralph's Market. She will live at home for the present.

She has been honored with miscellaneous showers given by Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Robert Bullock and Sue Spattifor; a personal shower, by Mrs. Louise Hart.

Opportunities to Spread Cheer Come in Abundance

NEVER miss a chance—
To let a child or a teen-ager or anyone who is unhappy or in trouble confide in you.
To lend a helping hand to someone who needs help but is too proud to ask for it.
To let those who have gone out of their way to help to know that their kindness is neither forgotten nor taken for granted.
To give confidence to the shy or unsure.
To congratulate the person who has done a job well or received an honor.
To say something good about a child to his parents or about his parents to a child.
To take the extra moment to be friendly and courteous instead of brusque and hurried.

BE A SCATTERGOOD

TO pass on the good you hear about others where it will mean the most.
To return favors done you whenever an opportunity presents itself.
To make others feel pleased with themselves instead of apologetic or regretful.
To do some good that is never known.
To put a stranger at ease.
To let those who matter to you know it.
To pay an honest compliment instead of keeping it to yourself.
To make others feel you trust them.
To try to understand the other person's point of view, however much it may differ from your own.

Close Contest On Tap Tonight At Jamestown

Present indications are that a large crowd of Blue & White fans will journey to Jamestown this evening to see the Diablos in action against the Red Raiders in a non-conference engagement.

Warren goes into the important game with a record of six wins and one loss, the only black mark having been registered by Kane, hence there is every reason to anticipate a grueling battle, with the possibility of the locals coming out on the top end of the score.

League action opens Friday with both the Upper Allegheny League and Section II District 10 Conference plying the lid off on Friday evening. Warren entertains Franklin while Corry plays at Meadville in the latter with Youngsville hosting Tidoute and Northern Area traveling to West Forest in the UAL.

With Victory Over Vejar Crawford Is Looking To Gavilan

New York (AP)—"Name" fighters don't awe young Mickey Crawford. The 23-year-old corner from Saginaw, Mich., easily defeated Chico Vejar last night and his next rival may be Kid Gavilan, the former welterweight champion in Miami Beach next month.

"Gavilan will be fine," said the rangy Crawford when his manager, Art Greenwald, mentioned that Miami Beach promoter Chris Marco and Wallace Bud Smith. "I like to meet fighters with a reputation I can go up faster."

Crawford is moving real fast for a kid with only 25 months of pro experience. His record now is 19-2 and his victims include two former lightweight champions, Paddy DeMarco and Wallace Bud Smith.

A 9-5 underdog, Crawford soundly drubbed the 26-year-old veteran from Stamford, Conn. He met Chico's rushes with sharp well-timed, left hooks and fast combinations to draw cheers from the crowd of 1,403 which paid $2,002 for the telecast 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

Associated Press Basketball Poll Shows Close Race

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press Free-scoring West Virginia strengthened its hold on the No. 1 spot in today's Associated Press basketball poll, but Mississippi State and Oklahoma State—two clubs who play 'em close to the vest—began to look like not-so-dark horses.

While West Virginia (10-0) pulled away from runner-up Kansas (10-1), Mississippi State jumped from ninth to fifth and Oklahoma State to eighth from 14th. The poll is based on games through Saturday.

Mississippi State and West Virginia are the only unbeaten clubs among the top 10. State has the best record among major teams after winning No. 11 with a 46-42 decision over high-scoring Alabama last night in Southeastern Conference play.

Oklahoma State, moving up after last week's 52-50 overtime upset of Kansas, knocked off seventh-ranked Cincinnati 61-57. It was the ninth in a row for the Cowboys, who have lost only their opener—to Kansas.

Speaking of Sports . . .

Vern Law has become the 7th Pittsburgh Pirate to send in his signed 1958 contract and the second member of the Bucs' "Big Three" to enter the fold for the upcoming season. Ronnie Kline previously had signed his '58 pact. The big 6' 3", 195 pound right-hander enjoyed his best season since joining the Pirates in 1950 with time out in 1952-53 for military service. Vern's 2.86 ERA last year was the fifth best earned-run mark in the National League, as he chalked up a 10-8 record for his first winning Buc campaign. Always a well-conditioned athlete who is never out of shape, Law's top endurance feat came in mid-1955, when he worked 18 innings against Milwaukee, before being lifted for a pinchhitter. Bob Friend took over and received credit for the Pirates 19th-inning victory.

Haney's Braves Are Voted Team-of-the-Year in A.P. Poll

By The Associated Press

Fred Haney's hustling Braves, who brought major league baseball's first world championship to Milwaukee, were overwhelmingly acclaimed the team-of-the-year today in the annual Associated Press year-end poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Winners over the New York Yankees after seven pulsating World Series games, the Braves collected 133 first place votes from among the 211 participants.

Not overlooked, but well out of the running, were North Carolina's college basketball titleholders, the Boston Celtics, National Basketball Association Powerhouse and Auburn's national collegiate football champs.

Milwaukee received 508 points on a basis of three points for first place, two for second and one for third. The Yankees gathered 205 points and 28 first place votes, the Celtics 146 points and 18 firsts and Auburn 137 points and 13 for the top position.

Following the Plainsmen in point-total order were Ohio State's football Buckeyes; the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League; the Montreal Canadiens, Stanley Cup playoff winners in the National Hockey League and the Michigan State football team.

Light Heavyweights To Meet Wednesday Night

By The Associated Press

While light heavyweight champion Archie Moore boxes a non-title match in Brazil on Friday, Yvon Durelle and Tony Anthony will be flailing away in a rematch at Madison Square Garden.

Durelle a fisherman from Baie Ste Anne, New Brunswick, is ranked No. 2 among the contenders by the National Boxing Assn and No. 3 by Ring Magazine. Anthony, a knockout victim in a September try for the title is No. 3 with NBA and No. 4 in Ring.

Their previous meeting, June 14 was called a draw although many thought Durelle had the edge. Anthony had just earned a championship match by knocking out Chach Spieser in Detroit when he ran into the tough Canadian.

The Durelle-Anthony bout will be covered by network NBC radio and television.

14 Cases of Alleged Violations Listed in College Sports

Philadelphia (AP)—The NCAA Council announced today that 14 cases of alleged violations of the collegiate governing body's athletic code are still pending.

The number was reduced from 16 yesterday when the council voted to punish to Memphis State University and the University of Wichita.

The names of the 14 members were not made public in a detailed statistical report released today.

As the 52nd annual NCAA convention went into its second day of open meetings, delegates were also wondering to what extent the convention will endorse the 1957 television committee's recommendation that the field of pay-TV be thoroughly investigated.

Willie Mays Possessor Of $65,000 Contract

San Francisco (AP)—Willie Mays, saying he doesn't want to get "too smart in baseball," today possessed the richest contract in the history of the National League's Giants—New York or San Francisco variety.

Speculation generally placed the figure around $65,000—some as high as $70,000. Owner Horace Stoneham would not give the exact amount, but said Willie's contract called for the highest salary ever paid a Giant player.

Although most estimates last year had Mays receiving about $35,000, a team spokesman said the star center fielder had been in the $50,000 area.

GAME AT BEATY THIS AFTERNOON

What is expected to be an exciting game of basketball is scheduled for this afternoon at three o'clock when Beaty Junior High meets Southwestern Junior High of Lakewood, N. Y., on the local court.

Frank Stranahan Winner Of the Los Angeles Open

Los Angeles (AP)—Ever wonder why a rich boy like Frank Stranahan wants to cross putters with the toughest golf pros in the game?

"Professional golf is one field where my family's money can't help me—it's my own fight," said the personable heir to a Toledo spark plug fortune after winning the $35,000 Los Angeles Open golf tournament yesterday.

The former amateur kingpin fashioned a last round 4-under-par 67 for a 72-hole total of 275 in the annual tournament that kicks off the winter golf campaign. Many of the pros are going from here to Bing Crosby's tournament starting Thursday at Pebble Beach.

Stranahan picked up $7,000 for his efforts, more than his entire tournament winnings last year.

Pirates Have Seven Players Signed Up

Pittsburgh (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have seven players under contract for the 1958 season following the signing of pitcher Vernon Law.

Law, a righthander who posted a 10-8 record last year, returned his contract yesterday.

The Pirates also expressed confidence that Dick Stuart, minor league home run hitter, can make the grade with them this season. They said good reports have been received from Cuba where Stuart is playing winter ball.

Stuart hit 66 homers in 1956 for Lincoln of the Western League but failed last year in trials with the Pirates, Hollywood and Atlanta because of frequent strikeouts and poor defensive work.

Twelfth Night

leading into Beaty Field, with their court members in attendance, the remaining Scouts massed on the steps and continued their caroling. They then proceeded to the southern portion of the field where about 20 Boy Scouts from Troop 2 were in charge of the burning of the huge pile of Christmas greens which had been placed on the field. As the greens ignited in a spectacular blaze, the reflection of which could be seen at distant points, spectators and participants alike were caught up by the significance of the occasion.

Mrs. Raymond Lowe, chairman of the Program Committee of the Warren-Forest Council of Girl Scouts, was in charge of arrangements for the evening's activities, assisted by Mrs. Walter Mathyer, Mrs. J. W. Rohrer, and Mrs. Carl Allen.

Much of the credit for the success of the "burning of the greens" goes to the many organizations who assisted, and the Girl Scout Council wishes to extend its thanks to the Warren Borough Park Department, Police and Fire Departments, the school board for the use of Beaty Field, Valentine Disposal Company, Scoutmaster James Palmer and his group of Boy Scouts, and to all others who contributed in any way to make Twelfth Night, 1958 a memorable event in Warren Borough.

PLOWING CONTEST

Harrisburg (AP)—Pennsylvania will make a bid for the 1958 National Plowing Contest at a meeting in Hershey on Friday. State and national officials have been invited to the meeting to discuss the possibility of bringing the annual late summer event to Hershey. Last year the three-day event was held in the Midwest. It is sponsored by the National Association of Soil Conservation and its district directors.

But, after a five-day New Year's vacation on Long Island, he appears to have bounced back jovially, he told friends on his return that he felt as good as he looked.

Dulles underwent a major operation for removal of a cancerous section of his intestine 13 months ago. Careful medical attention since then is understood to have shown no sign of recurrence.

Dulles is understood to believe the next few months will be critical in deciding the free world's answer to Russia's space age challenge.

As for the back expense money owed the Sheriff, Commissioner Blain Mead had no comment today. As for creation of the post of County Detective he would say only "talk to the District Attorney." The DA stated that the back expense matter had occurred during a different reign and was not his responsibility.

If the impasse continues, Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr. will preside over another hearing. He is expected to rule shortly on the matter of Treasurer Robert Ritchie's salary percentage.

Columbus Dam Project Rejected by Commission

Harrisburg (AP)—The Pennsylvania Fish Commission has turned thumbs down on a proposal that a dam be built on Brokenstraw Creek near Corry.

"The physical, biological and cost factors have not changed sufficiently to permit reconstruction of a previous decision not to build the so-called Columbus Dam," said William Voigt, executive director of the fish commission.

The commission voted yesterday not to reconsider the project, which has long been sought by some sportsmen in the Erie County area.

The commission, headed by President John W. Grenoble of Carlisle reported it took the action "with regret." Notice of the action was sent to the mayor of Corry, the commission said.

Rough Seas Battering Lower Texas Gulf Coast

Edinburg, Tex. (AP)—Rough seas battered the lower Texas Gulf Coast today while hundreds of persons displaced by the worst floods in three years started back to sodden homes.

More than 250 persons still were displaced by high water here, although the flood tide from five days of heavy rains was slowly receding.

The Weather Bureau said tides along the lower Gulf Coast would be about three feet above normal but winds that reached 40 m.p.h. last night were expected to diminish slightly today. Small craft were warned to stay in port from Texas to Florida.

Dozens of fishermen were marooned at scattered points along the Texas and upper Mexico coasts. Fishing vessels caught in the open seas faced a rugged buffeting.

SUSPECTS RELEASED

Pittsburgh (AP)—Four men who had been held by police for several days for questioning about recent bombings have been released from jail. Safety Director Louis Rosenberg said police did not have sufficient evidence to hold them. Set free last night were: Louis Kleinberg, 48; Richard Ambrose, 42; Sam Tedesco, 44; and Louis Scoriot, 46. Kleinberg and Ambrose were arrested last Thursday after an explosion damaged a car wash reportedly owned by Tony Grosso.

the four department heads average $437.50 a month.

A patrolman has to be on the police force for six months before he can earn $300 a month. A probationary fireman must be with the department for more than six months before his pay rises to $275 monthly. Rates per hour in the park and street departments are $1.50 to $1.70 an hour for mechanics and equipment operators, $1.40 to $1.60 an hour for drivers and $1.30 to $1.50 an hour for laborers. Time and one-half for overtime was voted approval for both park and street departments.

The resolution requesting an amendment to the R-3 zoning regulations was easily defeated by an 11 to 6 vote but indications were that the motivation to bring about the change could be gathering momentum.

When asking for comments before Council began discussion of the zoning proposal, Council President Leon Laskaris first called upon Visitor Henry Lanman who has spearheaded the fight against the amendment. Mr. Lanman would let stand his many objections voiced at a public hearing on the matter December 26th.

Then Attorney Samuel F. Bonavia produced for circulation among Council members a map of an early zoning proposal which showed that at one time the Fourth Avenue block in question between Liberty and Market Sts. had been considered for a commercial zoning designation.

Voting in favor of the motion to allow business and professional office space in the R-3 district were Councilmen James Frantz, Bernard Hetem, Karl Timm, "Pete" Juliano, John Carbon, Nick Merick.

When the voting was completed Councilman Beyer Africa gained the floor to explain that he had voted against the Planning Commission's proposal because he felt it was "too broad." He suggested that the Planning and Zoning Committee headed by Councilman Frantz reappraise the proposal with the idea of placing in Commercial Zone One or Three only those two blocks along Fourth Avenue from Hickory street to Market street. Councilman Paul Yagge suggested that perhaps a new "R-4" zone might be created in which business and professional office space would be permitted to occupy existing buildings but not alter the structure externally.

Later Council President Laskaris read a letter from the three Commissioners in the southwest corner of the Court House to the effect that they, the Commissioners, were now clearing the decrepit Annex. Once the offices there are relocated in the Court House cellar, said the Commissioners, they hoped Council might "liberalize" the zoning rules to permit professional office space in the Annex. The matter was taken under advisement.

Any further action will mean another public hearing.

Buildings and Lands Committee Chairman Yagge told Council that Robert Halle had offered to sell his garage and land on Crescent Street near the East Side Fire Station for $15,000. Council voted to pay $100 for an option on the property and referred purchase to the Planning Commission.

Councilman Yagge pointed out that this 50 by 112 foot garage was adjacent to existing borough garages at that location. He then stated that the Borough was paying $860 a year for storage space in four widely separated points and was losing money on the deal. He noted the $780 annual rent to Esso for use of the old highway sheds at the west end of town, $36 for annual rent of garage space for the police motorcycle and sidecar behind the Municipal Building, plus another $144 annual rent for keeping the village sweeper under a roof.

He also pointed out that to enlarge the present structure would cost around $38,000 and use up all available land for outdoor storage. Only shop space said the councilman was in the hangar which is no longer available to the borough.

Public Safety Committee Chairman Glen Patchen was confronted with a request from Conewango Avenue residents north of Fifth to allow parking either on one side or the other to alleviate a narrow, dangerous condition. Chairman Merick of the Public Works Committee introduced a request from Beaty Street residents for paving of their street from Fifth Avenue to the "Beaty Road." Councilman Patchen also mentioned the bad accident which occurred at Market and Fifth when an out-of-town motorist confused the red light with Christmas decorations. The matter was left in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce.

Councilman John Carbon, head of the Parks and Playground Committee, asked special consideration of purchase of the land adjoining Mulberry playground to enlarge the area and Finance Committee Chairman Maurice Emery told him that perhaps $1,000 could be spared from the budget to do the trick.

Council also was unanimously in favor of appointing Mrs. Martha Lawson police justice for a one year term.

The Rev. C. W. Baldwin of Grace Methodist Church gave the invocation and afterwards the newly reorganized Council was treated to coffee, cookies and brownies by Borough Manager George Geracimos and administrative staff.

Retailers Decide Dates for Annual Sales Promotions

The Retailers Committee of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce met last evening to plan for 1958 activities. Dates for four annual sales promotions were discussed and plans made for the next event scheduled for February, according to Charles R. Tranter, executive vice president.

Reports included those on Christmas street lighting, parking, and store hours. It was pointed out that beginning tomorrow most stores would be closed each Wednesday afternoon.

The Christmas committee reported that about 500 popcorn balls and candy canes left over from the visit of Santa Claus were given to patients at the state hospital, the Hoffman Home children and other charitable groups.

The final meeting of the current Retailers Committee will be held next month as a new committee will be elected in March. Attending last night's session were Melvin Ahlgren, Chairman James Blomquist, J. Rex Bieskarck, William H. Cannon, Karl Grettnerberg, F. R. Kishauer, Jake Levinson, John Logan, Karl Lundahl, George Redding, Dick Ross, Ray Stein, Frank Wood and Charles Tranter.

Mutilation Killer and Grave Robber Is Insane

Wisconsin Rapids, Wis. (AP)—Slayer Edward Gein returned to the Central State Hospital for the Criminal Insane yesterday for what could be the rest of his life.

Gein, the mutilation killer of two women and grave robber from Plainfield, was adjudged insane by Circuit Judge Herbert Bunde after a hearing here yesterday.

Testimony to Gein's insanity came from Dr. Edward Schubert, superintendent of the hospital, and Dr. Milton Miller, who reported on a 30-day observation period of Gein.

The 51-year-old bachelor was specifically charged with the Nov. 16 slaying of Mrs. Bernice Worden, a 58-year-old Plainfield widow who operated a hardware store. He later admitted slaying Mrs. Mary Hogan, 54, a Portage County tavern operator, in December 1954.

DEAR MARY,

I just wanted to tell you that Montgomery Ward has the best values on sheets and cases during their January White Sale of any store in Warren. Believe me, I shopped around and compared the thread counts with my counting glass. Ward's Longwear sheets and cases are just what they say they are, 132-thread count. There's no glib "sales pitch" in their sheets and cases. They've got value and the best buy in Warren. Mary, I have been using their Longwear quality sheets and cases for years. The 81"x108" size is on sale at $1.75, the 72"x108" is $1.55, and the 42"x36" size are only 36c each. Take a tip from me and go to Montgomery Ward and buy during their January White Sale. Stock up and you'll save money at Ward's just like I always do.

As ever, Jean.

Farm Column

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
Harrisburg (AP)—The economic health of a large segment of the state's dairy industry may be at stake in a series of moves affecting federal milk price control in the huge Philadelphia market.

The quick developments were seen by most farm observers as reactions by the U. S. Agriculture Department to powerful pressures brought by groups not yet identified by the USDA.

The first move was an order Dec. 30 by Ezra T. Benson, secretary of agriculture, suspending federal producer price regulation for the area. The official announcement of the move said the action was taken because state milk control commission regulations fixed producer prices at 10 to 51 cents a hundredweight (46½ quarts) more for class 1 milk.

There was an immediate reaction on the part of many Pennsylvania producers who supply the area. They contended the action would open the door to out-of-state competition they could not meet. They said dealers could buy the cheaper non-regulated outside production and make greater profit.

Thursday Benson ordered his suspension ruling held in abeyance indefinitely, reported L. S. Iverson, U. S. Milk Market Administrator for Philadelphia. The development came in response to pressures by "interested groups" the new ruling said.

The original USDA order Dec. 30 said: "Because of the wide discrepancies in prices between federal and state orders now existing, the federal order price is and promises to be without force or effect in that handlers are returning prices to producers which are in excess of those required to be paid under the terms and provisions of the federal order."

Presently, the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission minimum is $9.55 a hundredweight. Under the federal order the minimum is $9.64—a 91-cent difference.

However, as far as Pennsylvania producers are concerned the federal order never did affect their product on price. What it does affect is production in other states which do not have milk control.

In other words, the federal producer minimum in Philadelphia is high enough to stop Pennsylvania dealers from buying milk from the south or mid-west. Mid-western milk is already a serious competitive factor in the Pittsburgh area where there is no federal milk marketing order.

In Western Pennsylvania milk producers are often at a disadvantage in marketing their production because of the state minimum, while neighboring Ohio is unregulated.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

GRAND SLAM NOT OVERBID

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service
My old friend J. Edward Morrow of Joplin, writes: "Here is a hand that may interest you."

"It was played in a Joplin duplicate and at all tables North opened with a two heart bid and East overcalled with two spades. South usually bid three clubs whereupon North checked for aces and kings and eventually bid six no-trump since he could count 12 tricks only."

"When Mrs. Morrow sat South she chose to pass over East's two spade bid. I had committed us to game and she wanted to see what my next bid would be."

"When I jumped to four hearts she checked for aces and then for kings. Now I did a little counting. Her five no-trump bid had guaranteed that we held all four aces as she never checks for kings when we miss an ace. I counted 10 tricks in my hand plus her two aces for a total of 12. It looked as if there should be some play or other for the grand slam and I am an overbidder anyway so I went the whole hog and bid the grand slam in no-trump.

"Everything worked out fine. West opened the eight of spades. Mrs. Morrow was careful to play the deuce from my hand so as to retain the jack as a possible squeeze card. Then she ran my 10 red cards and since East held king-queen in both black suits he was squeezed and the grand slam made."

A very interesting hand indeed and not much of an overbid. Any time you can count 12 top tricks there is likely to be a pretty good play for the 13.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I have a 100 percent disability rating from VA. Does this mean I could receive VA outpatient treatment for any ailment I might have?

A—No. You may receive outpatient care only for the disability or disabilities which have been adjudged service-connected. Your notification from VA lists those specific conditions.

Q—I am considering paying GI insurance premiums once a year in advance. What if I were to die shortly after making my yearly advance payment? Would that money be lost?

A—No. VA would refund to your beneficiaries any money which hasn't been applied to premium payments actually due.

Q—I am a World War II veteran and I live in a house I bought with a GI loan. If I were forced to dispose of it after July 25, 1958, for some compelling reason such as health or job transfer, could I get my GI entitlement reinstated?

A—Yes, so long as VA would be relieved of its guaranty liability. You then would be eligible for another GI loan until January 31, 1965, even though the World War II GI loan deadline would have passed.

Q—I am the father of a deceased World War II veteran, receiving monthly payments under the Survivor Benefits Law. In computing my annual income to determine whether I will remain eligible for the payments, do I include just my net take-home pay or my gross wages including various deductions? I have a small part-time job.

A—You must include your gross salary, including money deducted for such items as taxes and retirement.

It Says "Greatness"...in Any Language!

Wherever highways exist and motor cars are known, the name "Cadillac" signifies but one thing—the unmistakable leader in its field.

For the motor car that has borne that distinguished name for the past fifty-five years has been so well designed and crafted that it has become a synonym for everything good and desirable in a product.

And never have these virtues been more evident than they are in the Cadillac car for 1958.

A single, sweeping glance at the new "car of cars", for example, reveals a grace and majesty and elegance never before attainable in modern automotive design.

A brief journey at the wheel provides irrefutable proof of the forward strides that have been made in Cadillac performance and in Fleetwood coachcrafting.

And a study of the facts about Cadillac economy and dependability indicates a soundness of investment beyond anything in Cadillac's brilliant past.

If you haven't as yet inspected and driven a 1958 Cadillac, you should do so very soon.

Whatever your favorite among Cadillac's wide selection of models, which includes the distinguished Eldorado Brougham, you will find it a rare masterpiece in everything a Cadillac can be.
